

Year 6 Summer Homework Menu

Science Look at the BBC Bitesize link on Light. Explore the section 'Why are shadows made?'. Make shadows and take photographs of them. Put your pictures and findings into a fact file all about shadows.	Art Listen to your favourite piece of music and draw/paint/create a piece of abstract artwork based on the music.	RE Write a diary of a typical Sunday in your life. What do you get up to? How does this compare to a Christian's Sunday? What are the similarities and differences?	History Look up 'enigma code activities for children' online. Complete some code busting activities.
Design Technology Find an old item of clothing that is either broken or you can't fit into anymore. What could you make from the material? How can you upcycle this item of clothing?	Music Listen to the music from Matilda the Musical as some of these numbers may be in out end of year show!	PSHE Create a Positive Affirmations poster for you to put up in your bedroom. Remind yourselves every day how awesome you are!	Computing Learn all about algorithms on the BBC bitesize website. Complete the algorithms test on the website.
History Take a trip to Bletchley Park, the home of the WW2 codebreakers. Tell us what you found out!	Geography Research igloos and how they are made/built. Can you make your very own igloo? How big will your igloo be? Big enough to put yourself or something inside?	Science Fossils- make you very own excavation site in your garden. Ask permission before you go digging!	Art Draw a detailed picture of an animal. Then cut it up in to puzzle like pieces. Put back together in a random arrangement to create an abstract piece of art.

Year 6 Summer Homework Menu

Useful links:

Light - Year 6 Science - BBC Bitesize

Rocks, fossils and dinosaurs | Natural History Museum \(nhm.ac.uk\)

Fossils - BBC Bitesize

Bletchley Park | Home

Codebreaking during World War Two - BBC Teach

Why doesn't an igloo melt? - BBC Teach

All about algorithms - BBC Bitesize

You may want to grab a copy of the book 'The Final Year' by Matt Goodfellow. It is written from the perspective of a Year 6 student. It follows his journey from the start of the year through to the final days of Year 6. Themes include friendship, family, schoolwork, transitioning to secondary school. It's a fantastic read!